

Colorado College Activism Institute

This .25-credit mentored internship program offers students an opportunity to engage in activist and/or advocacy work focused on one of two tracks:

- Community Organizing
- Immigrant Detention Work and Movement Lawyering

Students will engage in work that aims to confront escalating surveillance and criminalization of BIPOC communities by collaborating directly with community-based organizations in the US Southwest.

Apply Now

<https://www.coloradocollege.edu/offices/summersession/CC-students/activism-institute.html>

Application Deadlines

Priority Deadline, Dec. 1, 2023

Regular Deadline, Jan. 26, 2024

Program Details

Program Dates

May 28- July 14, 2024

Program Director

Dr. Eric Popkin

Department of Sociology

epopkin@coloradocollege.edu

Eligibility and Cost

The program is open to all current first-years, sophomores, and juniors at Colorado Colleges, all schools in the Associated Colleges of the Midwest, and other select colleges. Application and interview are required.

$5,000 for non-CC students

International Students

Interested international students studying in the U.S. on an F-1 or J-1 visa should visit the Activism Institute webpage for important additional information.

